Dear Exhibitor,

Welcome to the 2016–2017 ACSI Professional Development Exhibitor Catalog. We are pleased to announce the Professional Development events' schedules, and the invitation is extended to you for the Professional Development Forums and Leadership Conferences. Please allow us to assist you as you review this year's printed and online catalogs. This is indeed a valuable resource as you consider and select exhibiting opportunities at any or all of the events.

ACSI is the largest association of Protestant private schools worldwide. About 3,000 U.S. members—representing over 725,000 students—turn to ACSI for professional development, school improvement, and resources that support our children. Over 35 years ago, ACSI was established on a rich foundation laid by committed leaders rooted in the Word of God. We continue that tradition today, and we are still passionate about furthering our mission, which is to strengthen Christian schools and equip Christian educators worldwide as they effectively prepare students for life.

As always, our exhibit spaces are reserved on a first-come, first-served basis, so send your reservation promptly to secure an exhibit space of your choice. In addition, limited advertising opportunities will be available for Leadership Conference programs. The ad submission deadline is December 9, 2016. Go to www.acsi.org/exhibitors for the Advertising Order Form.

Thank you for considering ACSI again this year. We want to assist you in building long-term and profitable relationships through your access to ACSI educators and leaders.

I look forward to meeting you at our events this year!

Blessings,

Becky Hewes, Administrator of Event Exhibits

Visual access to surrounding Exhibitor spaces must not be unreasonably blocked by an Exhibitor. Exhibitors must check with the ACSI regional director responsible for a particular site for permission to exceed assigned exhibit space.

ACSI assigns exhibit spaces on a first-come, first-served basis after receipt of Exhibitor application and accompanying payment and acceptance of the application by ACSI. ACSI reserves the right to refuse any Exhibitor application for any reason. Exhibitors who have not paid in full for their booth will not be allowed to exhibit.

ACSI has reserved the right to require Exhibitors to remove from their displays any item or sign that does not conform to the moral standard, tone, or general standards of ACSI or the evangelical Christian school movement as solely determined by ACSI.

The Exhibitor agrees that the exhibit shall be set up and maintained through the duration of the event in full compliance with the terms of this contract. ACSI reserves the right to reject, eject, or prohibit any exhibit in whole or part, or any Exhibitor or Exhibitor representatives, with or without giving cause. In such a case, ACSI's liability shall not exceed the return of the exhibit fee to the Exhibitor in the amount that is unused at the time of ejection.

As a contractual condition of exhibiting at an ACSI event, an Exhibitor shall be fully responsible to pay for any and all damages to the exhibit site or for injuries to any person at the site that result from any act or omission of the Exhibitor. An Exhibitor agrees to defend, indemnify, and hold harmless ACSI and its employees and the event site owners, managers, agents, employees, subsidiaries, and affiliates from any damages or charges resulting from Exhibitor use of the property. An Exhibitor's liability shall include all losses, costs, damages, or expenses arising from, out of, or by reason of any accident or bodily injury or other occurrences to any person or persons, including the Exhibitor, its agents, employees, and business invitees that arise from or out of the Exhibitor’s occupancy and use of the exhibition premises or site location.

As a contractual condition of exhibiting at an ACSI event, the Exhibitor shall hold ACSI and its employees harmless for the possible loss of Exhibitor equipment, merchandise, or other materials from an Exhibitor’s display.

Exhibitors are strongly discouraged from bringing minor children onto the event site property. Exhibitors disregarding this request shall be totally responsible for the supervision of such children. Exhibitors are also responsible for any damages caused by the children and for any medical costs for injuries incurred by the children at the event site.

Exhibitors using sound equipment must make sure that the sound does not disturb neighboring displays. Sound projection should be confined to the limits of the booth.

Note: Send in your reservation as soon as possible. Complete the forms for events at which you wish to exhibit or advertise, and return them with full payment (check or credit card) to
