

Your Career at ACSI

The Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI)

is the largest Protestant Christian educational organization in the world. Founded in 1978, we support Christian educators and schools in a host of ways. Headquartered in Colorado Springs, we have 28 additional offices around the world, supporting more than 5.5 million students in nearly 24,000 Christian schools from over 100 countries.

To fulfill our mission, we seek employees who

- are committed followers of Jesus Christ,
- reflect a lifestyle consistent with a biblical notion of a Christian role model,
- willingly concur with our Lifestyle Statement and Statement of Faith, and
- possess the requisite skills, experience, and qualifications to effectively carry out the responsibilities of a given position.

Our employment opportunities encompass a broad range of roles and responsibilities, including academic services, administrative support, member services, professional development, editing, graphic design, marketing communications, publishing, information technology, accounting, facilities, customer service, management, and development, among others.

Employment at ACSI is open to qualified individuals who are Christians of good character. ACSI does not discriminate in employment, or in the terms or conditions of employment, on the basis of race, sex, national or ethnic origin, color, age, or disability. ACSI is a religious educational ministry, and as such, utilizes religion as an employment criteria. All prospective and current employees must agree with ACSI's mission statement, and they must be willing to conduct their lives in conformity with the association's statement of faith and the declaration and agreement to ethical and moral integrity, serving as a Christian role model.
